the ninety five theses or disputation on the power of indulgences are a list of propositions for an academic disputation written in 1517 by martin luther professor of moral theology at the university of wittenberg germany that started the reformation a schism in the catholic church which profoundly changed europe they advance luther s positions against what he saw as the abuse of the practice of clergy selling plenary indulgences which were certificates believed to reduce the temporal punishment for sins committed by the purchasers or their loved ones in purgatory in the theses luther claimed that the repentance required by christ in order for sins to be forgiven involves inner spiritual repentance rather than merely external sacramental confession he argued that indulgences led christians to avoid true repentance and sorrow for sin believing that they could forgo it by purchasing an indulgence did martin luther wield his hammer on the wittenberg church door on october 31 1517 did he even post the ninety five theses at all this collection of documents sheds light on the debate surrounding luther s actions and the timing of his writing and his request for a disputation on the indulgence issue the primary documents in this book include the theses their companion sermon a sermon on indulgence and grace 1518 a chronological arrangement of letters pertinent to the theses and selections from luther s table talk that address the ninety five theses a final section contains luther s recollections which offer today s reader the reformer s own views of the reformation and the ninety five theses werner hamacher s witty and elliptical 95 theses on philology challenges the humanities and particularly academic philology that assume language to be a given entity rather than an event in give the word eleven scholars of literature and philosophy susan bernstein michèle cohen halimi peter fenves sean gurd daniel heller roazen jan plug gerhard richter avital ronell thomas schestag ann smock and vincent van gerven oei take up the challenge presented by hamacher s theses at the close hamacher responds to them in a spirited text that elaborates on the context of his 95 theses and its rich theoretical and philosophical ramifications the 95 theses included in this volume makes this collection a rich resource for the study and practice of radical philology hamacher s philology interrupts and transforms parting with tradition precisely in order to remain faithful to its radical but increasingly occluded core the contributors test hamacher s break with philology in a variety of ways attempting a philological practice that does not take language as an object of knowledge study or even love thus in responding to hamacher s theses the authors approach language that because it can never be an object of any kind awakens an unfamiliar desire taken together these essays problematize philological ontology in a movement toward radical reconceptualizations of labor action and historical time

the ninety five theses were written by martin luther in 1517 and are widely regarded as the initial catalyst for the protestant reformation the disputation protests against clerical abuses especially the sale of indulgences the background to luther s ninety five theses centers on practices within the catholic church regarding baptism and absolution significantly the theses reject the validity of indulgences remissions of temporal punishment due for sins which have already been forgiven they also view with great cynicism the practice of indulgences being sold and thus the penance for sin representing a financial transaction rather than genuine contrition luther argues that the sale of indulgences was a gross violation of the original intention of confession and penance and that christians were being falsely told that they could find absolution through the purchase of indulgences luther objected to a saying attributed to johann tetzel that as soon as the coin in the coffer rings the soul from purgatory springs he insisted that since forgiveness was god s alone to grant those who claimed that indulgences absolved buyers from all punishments and granted them salvation were in error christians he said must not slacken in following christ on account of such false assurances ask any christian and he or she will agree that luther s 95 theses lit the match that became a worldwide fire yet almost none have actually read the theses this short book gives all 95 theses in list form a chapter on what each thesis said with a critical analysis plus an after word about their impact on the world if you think luther condemned indulgences read this book if you think he condemned the popes think again if you think he pinned his theses to the church door as an act of defiance or as a rebel this book will dissuade you in short at the time he wrote the theses he merely wanted fellow academics to join a discussion he had no intention of lighting a fire that rocked the medieval world see for yourself what the 95 theses really were you might be very surprised the author has reduced the number of theses to about 15 whereas the original german version reduced them to 20 you will see why martin luther the leader of the protestant reformation was born at eisleben prussian saxony november 10 1483 he studied jurisprudence at the university of erfurt where he later lectured on physics and ethics in 1505 he entered the augustinian monastery at erfurt two years later was ordained priest and in 1508 became professor of philosophy at the university of wittenberg the starting point of luther s career as a reformer was his posting on the church door of wittenberg the ninety five theses on october 31 1517 these formed a passionate statement of the true nature of penitence and a protest against the sale of indulgences in issuing the theses luther expected the support of his ecclesiastical superiors and it was only after three years of controversy during which he refused a summons to rome that he proceeded to publish those works that brought about his expulsion from the church for the 500th anniversary of the reformation a new translation of martin luther s most famous works by leading luther scholar and pastor william russell this volume contains selections from martin luther s most evocative and provocative writings freshly translated for the 21st century these documents which span the reformer s literary career point to the enduring and flexible character of his central ideas as luther s reform proposals emerged they coalesced around some basic priorities which he delivered to wide ranging audiences writing for children preaching in congregations formulating academic treatises penning letters to family and friends counter punching critics summarizing biblical books crafting confessions of faith and more this book demonstrates that range and provides entry points for non specialists and specialists alike into the thought and life of the epoch defining fascinating and controversial martin luther with attention to the breadth of his literary output it draws from his letters sermons popular writings and formal theological works this breadth allows readers to encounter luther the man the sinner and the saint the public activist and the private counselor the theologian and the pastor these writings possess a practical accessible arc as luther does not write only for specialists and church officials but he applies his chief insights to the real life issues that faced his rather wide variety of audiences martin luther s posting of the 95 theses to the door of the castle church in wittenberg on 31 october 1517 is one of the most famous events of western history it inaugurated the protestant reformation and has for centuries been a powerful and enduring symbol of religious freedom of conscience and of righteous protest against the abuse of power but did it actually really happen in this engagingly written wide ranging and insightful work of cultural history leading reformation historian peter marshall reviews the available evidence and concludes that very probably it did not the theses posting is a myth and yet marshall argues this fact makes the incident all the more historically significant in tracing how and why a non event ended up becoming a defining episode of the modern historical imagination marshall compellingly explores the multiple ways in which the figure of martin luther and the nature of the reformation itself have been remembered and used for their own purposes by subsequent generations of protestants and others in germany britain the united states and elsewhere as people in europe and across the world prepare to remember and celebrate the 500th anniversary of luther s posting of the theses this book offers a timely contribution and corrective the intention is not to debunk or to belittle luther s achievement but rather to invite renewed reflection on how the past speaks to the present and on how all too often the present creates the past in its own image and likeness this book offers a creative and illuminating discussion of protestant theology veteran teacher phillip cary explains how luther's theology arose from the christian tradition particularly from the spirituality of augustine luther departed from the augustinian tradition and inaugurated distinctively protestant theology when he identified the gospel that gives us christ as its key concept more than any other theologian luther succeeds in carrying out the protestant intention of putting faith in the gospel of christ alone cary also explores the consequences of luther's teachings as they unfold in the history of protestantism this book returns to the true nature of the gospel justification by grace alone through faith alone because of christ alone fundamental to the book's argument is a rejection of the biblical truth and the faithful heritage of the gospel by tracing the development of reformation theology in luther and calvin the giants in the american great awakening and the korean revivals are brought up for analysis jonathan edwards timothy dwight sun ju kil ik doo kim yong do lee and sung bong lee paul chulhong kang makes clear what can be at stake not merely for academic theologians but for all christians the gospel itself the sixteenth century document that changed the course of christianity monk and theology professor martin luther found himself in disagreement with the roman catholic church on the subject of indulgences certificates sold by the church that promised to spare their owners from punishment for their sins with his 95 theses luther proposed a debate on the subject but ultimately he was excommunicated and the protestant reformation began this is both a religious document and a historical one a turning point that marked a challenge to papal authority set off political conflicts and bloody war in europe and led to the remarkable variety of christian denominations and sects that exist in the world today

the ninety five theses or disputation on the power of indulgences are a list of propositions for an academic disputation written in 1517 by martin luther professor of moral theology at the university of wittenberg germany that started the reformation a schism in the catholic church
