from intimate portrayals of ordinary germans and nazi leaders to immersive spectacles of war and defeat this study argues that since 1990 german film has focused on portraying the nazi past from within descendants of pierre de beaufort born 1595 and ann colve whom he married in 1624 in 1913 rabindranath tagore received the nobel prize in literature world famous overnight he was translated into numerous languages meanwhile in slovenia a young still anonymous poet felt strongly drawn to the newly available works of the indian bard this young man was srečko kosovel who is today hailed as slovenia's leading avant garde poet of the interwar period but what could kosovel then barely out of his teens have in common with a figure of tagore's stature deeply affected by italy's conquest of parts of slovene populated territory kosovel was able to identify with tagore and relate to the historical predicament of colonial subjugation despite coming from different backgrounds they were kindred spirits a dynamic creative ideal of universalism lay at the core of their concerns as a true universalist in the sense of feeling empathy with the less fortunate it was more in the spirit of equality that kosovel approached tagore this volume is the first comparative study of the writings of these two poets who lived worlds apart but spoke in strikingly similar voices it explores the links between india and east central europe in the early decades of the twentieth century and gives expression to responses from within europe that have largely been overlooked in postcolonial and cultural studies poetry in these poems celestial transparency is abandoned for the quieter glow of unruly paradox as miller writes anterior dark makes its claim upon light yet this poetry is anything but bleak for the shop of nothing culls the radiance of poetry as witness as alchemical window this ghostliness may in fact be the very stuff of form miller's poetry locates the site precisely between gaze and image effecting a mode of recognition that somehow conjoins love with love presence with absence ghost with flesh
